

an air of greatest seriousness.

any title of nobility.' Now, Mr. Bally-winkle, it is perfectly clear that this that it can't create, for that would be illegal; it's against the most sacred all; and, painful though it is to me.

once, never to return. In fact, if you ever appear in the United States

Collins rode up in alarm.

CHAPTER XIII.

Miss Dangerfield Takes a Prisoner.

A dozen men carrying rifles across their saddle-bows rode away from Habersham's farm on the outskirts of

Turner Court House and struck a rough trail that led a devious course over the hills. At their head rode the guide of the expedition—a long silent man on a mule. Griswold and Haberefully arranged be on horseback. Their plans had ezvous, and save for cuting attorney and re, it may be said, eights. Near-ut they had special representative, al brief interchange before they her riding-crop."

By MEREDITH NICHOLSON TILLUSTRATIONS BY RAY WALTERS

SYNOPSIS.

outg ladies are trying to fill the shot f their fathers while the latter are misag. Both states are in a turmoil oven a Appieweight, an outlaw with gretolitical influence. Unaware of each of r's position, both Griswold and Ardmor state out to make the other prosecute Apieweight. Ardmore organizes a big hun riswold also takes the field. Frank Cons. Atlanta reporter, is arrested by Ardmore, but released to become press agent the young millionaire's expedition

CHAPTER XII.-Continued.

risoner, you fool! I'm a guest at sley and I'm looking for a lady." hat's a very unlikely story. Colins, help the gentleman down;" and ter obeyed instructions with ch zeal that the noble gentleman fell prope, and was assisted to his feet with a fine mockery of help-

"I tell you I'm looking for a lady horse ran away with her! I'm ake of Ballywinkle and brother-to Mr. Ardmore. I'll have you ent to jail if you stop me here."

"Come along, fluke, and we'll see hat you look like," said Cooke, leading the way to the bungalow verands. Thin Ardmore was lighting lamps. here was a long room finished in lack cak, with a fireplace at one crime of having insulted a woman will still hang over you until you are well and the walls were hung with not to risk being tried on that charge in North Carolina, as my people are the back of a leather settee in very impulsive and emotional, and 's entrance. It was a pose of ennonchalance, and Ardmore's cap, and on the back of his head, and brown hair rumpled boyishly. will be brought from Ardsley, where, and to the general effect of comfort you have said, you are a guest of Mr.

aplight, then he roared out joy- will now adjourn."

"Ardy, old man!" and advanced to-ard his brother-in-law with out-retched hand.

mad," said Ardmore, staring by, and bending his riding-crop road where it became a bridle-path and runs off into the forest. There I can after the lady and bring her

Cooke had seated the prisoner rather rudely in a chair, and the noble duke, having lost the power of speech in amasement and fright, rubbed his eyes and then fastened them incredulously on Ardmore; but there was no question about it, he had been repudlated by his own brother-in-law—the useless, stupid Tommy Ardmore, who, at best, had only a child's mind for pirafe stories and who was indubiate, stories and who was indubithe most negligible of negligible the caboose, Prof. Griswold and his cavalcade set out for Mount Nebo church. When the master of Ardsley was revenging himself upon the duke of Ballywinkle, his dearest friend. against whom he had closed the doors of his house, was losing no time in setting forth upon a mission which, if successful, would seriously interfore with all Mr. Ardmore's hopes and

The guide of the expedition pushed his mule forward at a fast walk, making no excuses to Griswold and Habersham for the roughness of the trails he chose, nor troubling to give warning of sharp turns where a horse, being less wise than a mule, tobogganed madly before finding a foothold. Occasionally a low hanging limb switched the associate professor sharply across the face, but his temper continued serene where the trail was darkest and questions about the university in his mer:

cuts through.'

"That's very likely," said Habersham. "I've seen the plat of what Ardmore owns on this side the border at the courthouse, and I remember that there's a long strip in Mingo county that is Ardsley land. Ardmore has houses of one kind and another scattered all over the estate and those Johnston's "American Politics" with lights may be from one of them. You know the place, don't you?"

"Cooke," he said half to himself as "Yes; I've visited there." admitted he turned the pages, "do you remem-Griswold. "But we'd better give it a ber just what the constitution says wide berth. The whole estate is sim-Now, Mr. Duke of Ballywinkle, listen They're appeared with scarlet fever.

"I guess that's a loke," said Haberthe Constitution of the United States, sham. "There's a big party on there which reads exactly as follows in this now, and I have seen some of the book: 'No title of nobility shall be guests in Turner's within a day or granted by the United States: And no person holding any office of profit or trust under them, shall, without the ed Griswold, his heart sinking at the thought that Ardmore had lied to him consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title, of to keep him away from Ardsley—from Ardmore's house! The thought of it really hurt him now. any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state. And it says Section 10 that 'No state shall grant

"Come on!" called Habersham. Half the company rode ahead to government can't recognize anything the remainder, including Griswold and Habersham, soon dismounted and tied foolish. As I, the governor of North their horses out of sight of the coun-Carolina, can't make a duke, I can't try road which they had latterly been see one. You are therefore wholly

"We are in plenty of time," said Habersham, looking at his watch. "The rest of the boys are closing in law of the land for you to be here at it is nevertheless my duty to order you to leave the United States at from the other side and they will be ready for Appleweight when he finishes his devotions. We've been studyagain, I hereby order that you be ing the old man's habits and he has a particular place where he ties his hanged by the neck until you be dead. One of Mr. Cooke's men will accom-pany you to New York to-morrow and horse back of the church. It's a little apart from the fence where most of the congregation hitch, and he chose it, no doubt, because in case of a surprise he would have plenty of room for maneuvering. Two mer are going to lay for him, seize and east of Sandy Hook, and I advise you gag him and carry him into the wood back of the church; and then we're off across the state line to lock him up in jail at Kildare and give Gov. lynchings are not infrequent in our midst. You shall spend to-night in Dangerfield the shock of his life." "It sounds simple enough; but it won't be long before Appleweight's ber that they are a shrewd lot."

"We've got to take our chances. Thomas Ardmore, who is officially un-Let's hope we are as shrewd as they are," replied Habersham. known to me. The supreme court They moved softly through the Cooke pulled the limp, bewildered duke to his feet, and dragged him from the bungalow. wood and presently the faint sound of singing reached them. "Old Rabdick has finished his ser-As they stepped out on the veranda non and we'll know the worst in 6

One of the party had already de tached himself and crept forward toward the chuch, to meet his appointed comrade in the enterprise, who was to come in from the other side. "Cooke, take your prisoner to the

The clapboard church presented in caboose; and Collins, come with me," commanded Ardmore; and a moment the moonlight the austerest outlines, and as the men walted, a rude though later he and the reporter rode off unseen hand was slamming the woodfuriously in search of Jerry Danger-field. dows from impious violence.

"We could do with less moon," mutpeered through the trees into the churchyard.

"There goes Bill Appleweight now," whispered one of the natives at his elbow, and Griswold felt his heartbeats quicken as he watched a tall figure silhouetted against the church and moving swiftly toward the rear of the building. At the front of the church voices sounded, as the departing worshipers rode or drove slowly away. Habersham laid his hand suddenly on Griswold's arm. "They've got him! They've nailed him! See! There! They're yanking him back into the timber. They've taken him and his horse!" Griswold saw nothing but a momentary confusion of shadows, then per-fect silence hung over the woods behind the little church. The congregation was slowly dispersing, riding away in little groups. Suddenly a voice called out in the road 100 yards beyond the church: "Hey, there! Where's Bill?" "Oh, he's gone long ago!" yelled slammed and a last figure rode rapid ly away. (TO BE CONTINUED.) * ROUND ABOUT

MOST IMPORTANT NEWS GATHERED FROM ALL

TEACHERS' INSTITUTES.

PARTS OF KENTUCKY

- THE STATE -

Names of Counties and Places fo Meeting.

Frankfort, Ky .- The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has givsteepest, and he found himself ignor- en out the list of teachers' institutes ing Habersham's occasional polite to be held in the state during the sum-ing Habersham's occasional polite questions about the university in his effort to summon up in memory certain ways of Barbara Osborne which baffled him.

"Check up, cain't you?" snarled the man on the mule, laying hold of Griswold found that they had been circling round a curiously symmetrical, thickly wooded hill, and had finally come to a clearing whence they were able to gaze far off toward the north.

"We are almost out of bounds," said Habersham, pointing. "Over there somewhere, across the hills, lies North Carolina. I am as thoroughly lost as you can possibly be; but these men know where they are. How far is it, Billy"—he addressed the silent guide—"to Mount Nebo?"

"About four mile, and I reckon we'd better let out a lettle now or they'll sing the doxology before we git than."

"What's that light away off there?" asked Habersham.

The guide paused to examine, and the faint glow far down the vale seemed to perplex him. He spoke to one or two other natives and they viewed the light ruminatively, as it their way.

"Thet must be on Ardmore's land," "Thet must be on Ardmore's land," "Thet's very likely," said Haber-man.

"That's very likely," said Haber-man.

"Check up, Caldar—August 2, Catholougie, Richmond.

Fallar—August 2, Danville, Leila Pattridge—August 15, Bardweil, J. T. C. Noe, Lexington.

Ballard—August 2, Danville, Leila Pattridge—August 15, Bardweil, J. Hardinsburg.

Checken and the state during the sum-hard sum-layers and the land. The state during the sum-hard sum-layers and the land. The state during the sum-hard sum-layers and the land. The state during the sum-layers a mond. Estill—August 29. Beattyville, J.

A. Sharon, Richmond.
Fayette—August 29. Lexington, J. T. C.
Noe, Lexington. Fleming—October 3, Flemingsburg; J. C. Willis, Lexington.
Floyd—August 1, Prestonburg, J. A. Sharon, Richmond. Franklin—See Jessamine; four-county. Fulton—August 29. Fulton, R. M. Shipp., Winchester.
Garrard—See Boyle; tri-county. Grant—
August 15, Williamstown; J. A. Sharon, Richmond. Graves—August 22, Mayfield;
T. J. Coates, Richmond. Grayson—August 8, Lestchfield; T. J. Coates, Kichmond. Green—See Taylor; tri-county.
Greenup—July 25, Gneenup; G. W. Chapman, Paris.
Hancock—August 22, Hawesville; E. P.
Kelley, Richmond. Hardin—July 25, Elizabethtown; A. J. Kinnaman. Bowling Green. Harlan—July 4, Harlan; J. T. C.
Noe, Lexington. Harrison—July 25, Cynthiana; T. J. Coates, Richmond. Hart—
July 5, Munfordville; W. J. Craig, Powling Green. Henderson—August 22, Henderson, J. T. C. Noe, Lexington. Henry—

Jefferson—August 22. Louisville: James H. Fuqua, Russellville. Jessamine—October 10, Nicholasville; R. M. Shipp, Winchester. Johnson—August 8, Paintsville; J. A. Sharon, Richmond.
Knott—August 22, Hindman; M. O. Winfrey, Middlesboro. Knox—July 11, Parybourville; T. J. Coates, Richmond.
Laurel—September 13, London; J. A. Sharon, Richmond. Lawrence—August 2. Louisa; M. O. Winfrey, Middlesboro. Lee—August 22, Beattysville; J. A. Sharon, Richmond. Leslie—July 25, Hyden; C. D. Lewis, Berea. Letcher—July 25, Whitesburg; J. T. C. Noe, Lexington, Lewis—July 18, Vanceburg; G. W. Chapman, Paris. Lincoin—July 11, Stanford; J. W. Ireland. Stanford. Livingston—August 15, Smithland; T. J. Coates, Richmond, Logan—August 8, Russellville; E. M. Shipp, Winchester.
Madison—July 18, Richmond; T. J. Coates, Richmond, Magoffin—September 12, Salyersville; J. T. C. Noe, Lexington, Marion—See Taylor; tri-county. Marshall—August 15, Benton; A. C. Burton, Mayfield. Martin—July 4, Inez; W. M. Byington, Louisa, Mason—August 29, Maysville; E. George Payne, Richmond; J. W. Ireland. Stanford. McCracken—August 8, Paducah; C. W. Richards, Princeton, McLean—July 5, Calhoun; T. C. Cherry, Bowling Green, Menifee—August 15, Tompking-denburg; W. J. Craig, Bowling Green, Menifee—August 15, Tompking-ville; R. M. Shipp, Winchester, Metcalfe—August 29, Edmonton; Fred Mutchler, Bowling, Green, Monroe—August 15, Tompking-ville; R. M. Shipp, Winchester, Metcalfe—August 29, Edmonton; Fred Mutchler, Bowling, Green, Monroe—August 15, Tompking-ville; R. M. Shipp, Winchester, Montgom—ery—August 15, Mt, Sterling; J. R. Sterett, Lebanon, Morgan—July 25, West Liberty, J. A. Sharon, Richmond.
Nelson—August 1, Bardstown; A. S. Mackenzie, Lexington, Nicholas—July 25, Wasterbert, Lebanon, Nicholas—July 25, Mackenzie, Lexington, Nich ett, Lebanon. Morgan-July 25, West Liberty: J. A. Sharon. Richmond.

Nelson-August 1, Bardstown; A. S. Mackenzie, Lexington. Nicholas-July 25, Carlisle; E. C. McDougle, Richmond.
Ohlo-August 1, Hartford; Fred Mutchler, Bowling Green. Oldham-August 1, Lagrange; J. T. C. Noe, Lexington. Owen-August 22, Owenton; E. George Payne. Richmond. Owsley-August 2, Booneville; C. D. Lewis, Berea.
Pendleton-August 22, Falmouth; T. S. Williams, Augusta. Perry-July 18, Hazard; J. T. C. Noe, Lexington. Pike-July 11, Pikeville; W. M. Byington. Louisa. Powell-July 18, Stanton; K. M. Shipp, Winchester. Pulaski-July 11, Somerset; E. C. McDougle, Richmond.
Robertson-July 11, Mt. Olivet; R. S. Eubank, Lexington. Rockcastle-July 11, Mt. Vernon; C. D. Lewis, Berea. Rowan-July 11, Morechead: no instructor. Russell-August 1, Jamestown; A. J. Kinnaman, Bowling Green.
Scott-See Jessamine; four-county. Shelby-August 29, Sheibyville; R. S. Eubank, Lexington. Simpson-July 25, Franklin; Fred Mutchler, Bowling Green. Spencer—September 19, Taylorsville; W. J. Craig. Bowling Green
Taylor-July 4, Campbellsville; J. C. Willis, Lexington. Todd-August 15, Elkton: A. J. Kinnaman. Bowling Green. Trigg-July 4, Cadiz; R. M. Shipp, Winchester.
Union-August 22, Uniontown; no instructor.

Union-August 22, Uniontown; no in Warren-August I, Bowling Green; T. J. Coates. Richmond. Washireton-July 4. Springfield; Geo. Colvin. Springfield. Wazne-September 12, Monticello. Webster-August 22 Dixon: E. C. McDougle, Richmond. Whitley-July 4, Williamsburg; T. J. Coates. Richmond. Wolfe-July 25. Campton: E. M. Ship. Winohester. Woodford-See Jessamine; four-

IN FULL SWING.

Proctor Knott Chautaugua Has Fine Opening at Lebanon.

Chautaugua opened. The old governor gave this home to the association J. O. Sowers, of the Valley View Arsome time ago and it is the proudest | gent. time in the sunset of his life to feel | Paintsville, Ky.-Four more bodies that the Chautauqua is a success. other day in his invalid chair, the first of damage done by the flood has been time for many months, with the weight roughly estimated at $200,000. Live of eighty-six years hanging heavily stock, crops and buildings were wash-

Lexington, Ky .- Stephen D. Willis deputy revenue collector of the Seventh district under Collector Sam J. hart family have been recovered.

Koberts, former educator and newspaper man, died at St. Joseph's hos- trial on the charge of pessing counterpital of a complication of diseases, feit money and being held to the Fedchief of which was Bright's disease.

mayor of Frankfort, was elected pres- in five Federal penitentiaries, sawed ident of the Municipal League of Ken- his way out of the local jail. Ir., city attorney of Paducah, was Jailer Lucas gave the alarm in time about peeping. While wondering hand elected secretary.

JUDGE BREATHITT'S OPINION.

Decides Act Increasing Salary of State Librarian Unconstitutional.

Frankfort, Ky.-Under an opinion rom the attorney general, the increased salary provided for the state librarian and the assistant state mine inspectors will not be allowed by the suditor, and test suits, on agreed state of facts, will be filed to determine the constitutionality of the laws granting the increase.

Judge Breathitt holds, as he did in the case involving the right of the up and down the hard, wet sands. circuit judges to an increase, that the Others speed up and down in their au- man if he hadn't arisen with a face salary of an officer can not be changed tos. Others, still, sit on hired chairs as red as paint and cross all the way during his term of office.

Kavanaugh, state librarian, and the maids. mine inspectors who were appointed prior to the new act becoming effec-

NEW CROP WHISKY.

Millions of Gallons Produced in Frankfort District of Kentucky.

Frankfort.-The season for making whisky in this district closed with a total of 84,727 barrels, or 3,621,443 gallons being made by the 11 distilleries in and near Frankfort.

The new season will not open until October, and during the summer there will be many improvements made at all of the plants. A warehouse that will hold 30,000 barrels is being built now at the Old Taylor plant, and disgenerally increase their capacity during the vacation.

TWO SOLDIERS DIE.

Owenton, Ky .- A G. Gross and W. H. Wilhoite, two Confederate soldiers and two of the most highly respected passed away.

earnest, laborious, Christian man, and served in the same company in the Civil War with Mr. Wilhoite. He leaves one daughter, four brothers and four

Mr. Wilhoite was 72 years of age and served the four years of the war. He was married in 1865 to Miss Elizabeth Williams, who survives him.

The Commonwealth

Winchester.-Circuit Judge Benton appointed Lee S. Baldwin as circuit cierk to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Jonas Bush. Baldwin has served a term as county clerk, and for some years was chairman of the Lexington.-The Central Kentucky Millers' association met here and elected D. T. Matlock, of Winchester, president; W. J. Kennedy, of Carlisle, vice president, and B. M. Rennick, of Paris, secretary treasurer. A movemeut for the holding of a wheat show here in September was launched.

Covington.-Mayor Craig appointed George Seiler at the meeting of the board of aldermen to be city auditor of Covington to take the place of William S. Gould. The present auditor has held that position for the past six years. His successor was formerly assistant postmaster of Covington. The position pays $1,800 a year.

Louisville.-In a fit of jealous rage, James C. Bird, a building contractor, of this place, shot and almost instant. Miss Kitty's auto, and she was runhis throat with a knife that resulted they saw a young man half a mile in his death about 30 minutes later, ahead of them. He was scuffing along The tragedy was enacted in the beau- on the hard track and was in their Frankfort, Ky. - Certain "soft" in local option territory in Kentucky under the "soft" drink license. Stato Auditor Frank P. James sent out no-tices to all of his revenue agents to put a ban on such drinks in local co-tonut a ban on such drinks in local coput a ban on such drinks in local opdrinks containing alcohol.

him the automobile. He declined to auto was aiming to pass him within assisted Miss Waldron up the ste buy it, and they asked permission to a few feet, but that was all right. He of the veranda, she turned to him leave it at the farm. of Thaddeus E. York for trying to defraud the State Bank of Chicago out pretense. of $5,000 by means of an alleged fraudulent certificate of deposit by the First National bank of this city.

The man used a $20,000 forged certificate in San Francisco to open an tire exploded with a bang. Two around her brother's neck and muraccount and drew $5,325 against it.

Officials of the Firsty National bank believe that York is the same man arrested at Klamath Falls, Ore., in April.

Inner R. Stears, ed.

tire exploded with a bang. Two young ladies screamed. The auto ran wild until half buried in the sand.

The young man was blown over on his back by the concussion and swallother, and now you have!" tor of the Jessamine News, president of the Eighth District Publishers' the executive committee P. H. Fickles, Lebanon, Ky.-The Proctor Knott of the Richmond Register; J. B. Paxton, of the Lawrenceburg News, and have been recovered from the Licking Gov. Knott was on the street the river, making 10 thus far. The amount Louisville, Ky.—James H. Polsgrove, ers in America, having served terms her hiding place until the other day.

Deaf and Dumb—and Blind

By PAUL CALVIN ANDERSON

(Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.)

When the tide is out at Paim | lowed his wad of cotton Beach hundreds of hotel guests walk ond time in an hour. and gaze out seaward and imagine through. He grabbed for his hat and The opinion involves only Frank they can hear the songs of mermight have gone running over the

On a certain day in the present tive voice reached his ears: twentieth century Philip Gillett was tive. The test case will reach the among those who walked. He was a have bursted a tire!" court of appeals at the September young man at the beach with his mother and sister, and his occupation | man he must do so; but he made up when at home in New York was preparing himself for architecture. He wouldn't speak a word to those girls. did that mostly by looking at one or They had fed him on cotton, so to two skyscrapers a day from the out- speak, and he would have his revenge. side and spending $500 per week al- He advanced and raised his hat. Then lowed by his father. It was his fa- he inspected the tire. ther who had insisted that the young man take up architecture. There the flying pieces," said Miss Kitty in never had been an architect in the Gillett family, and he wanted one. He had a manor house, and he wanted a hennery built, and he wanted to point to it after it was finished and say: "A Gillett did that!" On this particular day Philip Gillett had toothache and he set out to walk it off. His sister had told him to hold tilleries throughout the district will a wad of cotton saturated with peppermint essence in his mouth, and to keep his mouth shut. He thought a obeying her. Toothache affects a person pecu liarly-particularly a man. It gives him what is known as a grouch. He wants to stand on the beach and see and oldest citizens of the county, have a dentist drown in the sea. He isn't to blame, but everybody else is. And Mr. Gross was 73 years of age, an what made young Mr. Gillett crosser still was the fact that he had to chew cotton and keep his mouth shut. It was not dignified. It was taking undue advantage of a fellow. Among those who motored that day were Miss Edna Blair and Miss Kitty Waldron, girl chums. They were in Resorted to More Peppermint.

The tragedy was enacted in the beau-tiful home of James C. Bird, Thirty-sixth street on the nard track and was in the path. The honk! honk! was sounded. She's stopping at the Royal. I've in-but he paid no attention. He wanted vited her to take a spin in the auto be run over and have that aching to, and you are to be chauffeur.

tooth smashed out. miles when he sat down on a hum-mock and resorted to more pepper-lett would have swallowed a whole Lexington, Ky.—An automobile that mint. His sister was right; it began roll of cotton batting had it been was stolen in Louisville from the pri- to have a soothing effect! He began handy. She was the girl of the other up at the farm of T. J. Brown, four miles from Lexington.

Brown said that three boys, none of them over 20, came to his place in the machine. They said that they were out of funds and offered to sell miss kitty Waldron was more so. The bine the automobile. He declined to the stems of them and the stems of them had toothache. And when they got back at last and Mr. Gillett tried to say things, and Miss Waldron did likewise, and the sister sat there and wondered if both of them had toothache. And when they got back at last and Mr. Gillett auto was aiming to pass him within a selected Miss Waldron up the stems. reasoned that the girls desired a near- say: Lexington.—News reached here of the arrest of a man giving the name of Theddens E. York for trying to dehim, of course, but that was false to make them.

And after that fate stepped in. The satisfactory, as an auto ride bec auto was exactly opposite Philip to a thing of daily occurrence thereaf an inch, and exactly six feet and one er, and the season had not yet closed inch and a half away, when a front when Miss Gillett put her arms

He would have been le sand dunes had not a sweet and plain-"Oh, sir, please do help us!

his mind to do no more. That is, he

"I hope you were not hit by one of her most ingratiating manner.

No reply. "Will we have to walk back to the hotel?" No answer.

"You see we have a spare tire

Mr. Gillett owned an auto himself... good deal of his sister, and he was He took the jack from its place, and scend he went at it and had the overhearing such observation

"Say, Edna, he must be deaf." "Yes, deaf as an old tin pan." "And he hasn't spoken a word. De you think he's also dumb?

"He looks it." "Poor young man! It's just awful! He's got considerable style about

"Oh, I don't know. Wasn't it funny to see him go over on his be If his hat hadn't blown off he'd have "Hush, you bad girl! I'll tell your what he is. He's a professor in some deaf and dumb school. And he owns an auto, too. See how handy he is wish we hadn't frightened him so. "If we had scared him worse, he might have got his voice and hearing back. Think what it would be to marry a deaf and dumb man! Are your going to thank him?"

my thanks"

As Mr. Gillett finished and st back and raised his hat the thanks pace. The toothache was all go but he had been humiliated. He had garoo; he had been blown flat on. his back; he had been made to swal low wads of cotton; he had almost been called names to his very face. No wonder he wouldn't speak to his to the hotel, and that his mother laid her maternal hand on his locks and "Philip, I hope you won't go into a decline, as your grandfather did at sister for an hour after getting back this very place.' There is fate and there is revenge ly killed his wife, Mrs. James C. Bird. ning it herself. After getting out of Fate had come—revenge had to wait. As a climax he inflicted a wound in the crowd, and heading up the shore, a day or two. Then the sister came

"Oh, Phil!" she exclaimed; "I've met just the nicegt girl you ever saw!

want you to meet her." business and the world looked rosy again, Philip consented, though eatirely to please the sister. They diftion territory by collecting a liquor license from any person selling "soft" more peppermint for his acting tooth.

Mr. Gillett's walk had extended two miles when he sat down on a humber their passenger that Mr. Philip Gillett's walk had extended two miles when he sat down on a humber their passenger that Mr. It was only when they had rolled vate garage of Adger Stewart turned to feel glad that he was alive and auto-the girl who had looked her

"Sir, have you any explanation make?" "I have, and will call this evening

The explanations must have proved league, has appointed as members of Hen's Nest Found in Tree Biddy's Home Not Discovered Until Two of Her Chicks Dropped to the Ground.

they were hatched out, says a Dallased away.

Salyersville.—A cloudburst at the head of Licking river swept away 21 dwellings. Three bedies of the Gay-

April. the missing, and he asked Mr. Bailey, his son-in-law, who took charge of the eral grand jury, Jacob Brill, said to farm, to watch for her. A search be one of the most noted counterfeit. was made, but he was unable to find

Where an old ladder was inclined against the trunk of an old cherry tree tucky at the closing session of its first | With the aid of two sheets be drop- Mr. Balley noticed two chicks several convention here. James Campbell, ped into the arms of a contelerate, days old at the base and running prised to see the hen fly from the fork of the tree and come to the relief of her offspring. Further investigation revealed the nest in the tree, together A hen of the Houdan species was with seven more peeps and an unound on the farm of Henry Bailey hatched egg, which proved to be roll

The chicks on the ground had fallen from the nest, which had been formed posited there by the elements during dan and her happy family have been provided with better quarters and are doing well.

Nervous Lady (on her first ocean voyage)-And, captain, what in the world would you do if your crew suddenly mutinied? The Cantain (smilingiv)-Simply write a "help wanted-male" ad, and hand it to the wireless operator .--